

Neurotology Fellowship Program Information

Program name: NYU Neurotology Fellowship

Program Director: Sean O. McMenemy, M.D.

Program Coordinator: Dieann Sangster

Address: NYU Grossman School of Medicine Department of Otolaryngology NBV 5E5 New York, NY 10016

Phone number: 212-263-6344

Fax number: 212-263-8257

Email: Dieann.Sangster@nyulangone.org

Website: <https://med.nyu.edu/departments-institutes/otolaryngology-head-neck-surgery/divisions-centers/otology-neurotology-skull-base-surgery/fellowship-training>

Application Deadline: June 30th

Number of fellows per year: One every other year (2 year program)

University Affiliation: NYU Grossman School of Medicine

Hospital affiliation: NYU Langone Health, Bellevue Hospital, Manhattan VA

Accreditation: ACGME

Faculty: Dr. J. Thomas Roland, Dr. Sean McMenemy, Dr. Dan Jethanamest, Dr. David Friedmann

Licensing requirement: NY medical license

Operative experience Large CI and ABI volume, Over 100 acoustic neuroma/year, extensive experience in tympanoplasty, CSF leak, mastoidectomy

Call requirements: minimal

Research: Vast research opportunities exist – multiple clinical studies and industry trials in CI/ABI including ABI IDE trial and translational collaborations with Neuroscience including studies on pitch-matching, bimodal hearing and electrode placement.

Benefits: yes with health care

Salary: Begin- PGY 6 - $85,000

Number of Neurotology faculty: 4

Additional Information: Superb, well rounded and comprehensive clinical fellowship with opportunities for resident teaching, mentored research and academic presentation. Gamma knife operative training experience available.