

Neurotology Fellowship Program Information

Program name: Vanderbilt University Medical Center- Otolaryngology/Neurotology

Program Director: David Haynes, MD

Program Coordinator: Candace Allen

Address: 1215 21st Ave., South Ste: 7209 Nashville, TN 37232

Phone number: 615-343-6972

Email: candace.allen@vumc.org

Website: <https://ww2.mc.vanderbilt.edu/otologyneurotologyfellowship/>

Application Deadline: May 1, 2019

Number of fellows per year: one

University Affiliation: Vanderbilt University

Hospital affiliation: Vanderbilt University Medical Center

Accreditation: ACGME

Faculty: Vanderbilt Otolaryngology Group

Licensing requirement: No medical license required

Operative experience (text for fellowship to enter): This two-year program is designed to acquire and establish diagnostic and technical expertise in the field of neurotology through a graduated experience in the diagnosis, treatment planning, medical, surgical, and rehabilitative issues in the field of otology/neurotology. The fellows must have completed an ACGME-accredited otolaryngology head and neck surgery residency and upon completion of their training will be board-eligible for neurotology.

Call requirements:

Research:

Benefits:

Salary: Salary commensurate of incoming PGY level and the corresponding GME Stipend List

Number of Neurotology faculty: 5

Additional Information: